

Notice

To solve the current hostel crisis to some extent, I would like to inform you that those of you, who have some financial capacity, are currently residing and are eligible for housing facilities, can provide that opportunity to other students suffering from various economic and social difficulties.

If you are a student with such financial capacity, please contact this section and be a part of this great work.

Thank you,

Act. Director

Student Accommodation Division